

Case Study

Products:

Hive lounge

UW-Whitewater

Drumlin Student Dining and Connor University Center

Scope of Project:

Collaborative social gathering spaces in a student dining room and in the University Center with a USB charging zone built right in for UWW students. Hive creates a great environment for communication and group study while powering devices.

Design Focus:

Hive is configured to transform the spaces into a social gathering place. UWW school colors are used in the design of Hive to create a fresh new look and feel.

Furniture:

The modern look and feel of Hive creates an "awesome" space, as stated by students passing by.

Collection of colored layout and renderings from design book.
