Scope of Project:

Create an exciting environment with a furniture and design remodel at Wayne County High School's Cardinal Café in Kentucky to maximize seating for dining, and a place to socialize. Breakfast was served in kiosk stations in the hallway and they wanted to be able to provide breakfast in the cafeteria. As an end result, increase student participation leading to increased revenue.

Design Focus:

Transform boring walls and space to an environment that represents school pride using their mascot and school colors. Wayne County also wanted the space to represent the school athletic programs with spirit and pride.

"Our goal behind this was to create a more colorful, student friendly common area for eating and socializing. Overall it should serve to make the student's meal more enjoyable." – Karen Gibson, Wayne County School's Nutrition Services Director

Furniture:

Students love the Chariot™ booths and pub tables. Those are the first to fill up.

Together the Palmer Hamilton mobile tables, Alloy pub tables and Chariot™ booths create a college feel. Custom art and graphics of the school cardinal mascot represent school pride and promote athletic programs. All the furniture is mobile, creating a space that is flexible for multiple functions.

“The lunchroom looks brand new. I don’t think it has ever looked this good. It gives you more options of where you get to sit and how many people sit with you. I really like it.”

– Emily, Freshman at Wayne County High School

“In love with the new lunchroom! We wanted our dining experience to compliment the school’s college and career readiness goals for students.”

– Karen Gibson of Wayne County Schools in Monticello, KY
